“ I met Ernestine in 1982. She expressed kindness, compassion and love in her profession to individuals. I have yet to meet a Social Worker that had any of these qualities. She is Gods angel. My condolences to family. With Love and Admiration Elizabeth Martinez

“ This week I thought about Ernestine Tolbert and decided to use social media to see if I could locate her. Today I learned that she transitioned. I met Ernestine in 1980 when we both were working at Phoenix South Mental Health Center in Phoenix, Arizona. We instantly became friends and she invited me to co-facilitate a Black Women's Task Force group. We spent a lot of quality time together. Family I know that you miss her dearly but you have the memories that will forever be in your hearts. May she continue to rest in eternal peace.

“ Dear family of Ms. Tolbert,
Please understand that you are in our thoughts. The pain you feel will ease with time. But keep in mind that death is not the end according to God's Word. Jesus here on earth talked about a time when all those in the graves will hear his voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) He performed a real-life resurrection (or bringing a dead person back to life)in the book of John chapter 11, verses 11-14, 43,44. Read it and put Ms. Tolbert's name there because that is what's going to happen in the near future. Sending Agape Love,
Joyce
