“ Dear Mrs. Holland,

God's son, Jesus know what losing a loved one feels like. Remember he cried when his dear friend died (John 11:35) even though he would be given the power to resurrect him. Who gave him the power? His Father, Jehovah! (Exodus 6:3) So Mary, they will do the same for Mr. Holland real soon. (John 5:28,29) Please read these scriptures from the bible and receive the comfort that only God's word can give. Sincerely, Mrs. Simpson

“If love could have saved him, he never would have died”. One thing I do know for sure is that Bro. Holland was loved, and knowing the faith he had and the faith of his family, his home going will be a celebration. We will all miss his physical presence, and his exuberance for life, but we will take his spirit with us for the rest of our days. Have consolation in knowing that there are friends who care. Praying for the entire family.... May God cover you with his grace, and may you find strength and peace to carry you through this difficult time. Weeping may endure for a night, but Joy Does Come In The Morning. Love Always!!!

“ We are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that theses verses are comforting to you.

“ Dear Holland Family,
Heart Strings. The common avenue connecting us, affecting appreciation for someone we never met, but who now seems a part of our lives through our beloved friend, his wonderful son Bill. To this, I express my admiration of your family's great love and its inspiration that, at this time of loss, will lend pause to a longer hug with my husband, my children, and those whose life's journey, interacting with mine, have been a true gift from God. I hope, at time's appointment, that my life will have been so far reaching.

“ We were greatly saddened to learn of Ervin's transition.

I will cherish the fond memories that I have from our relationship over the years. He was always a gentle giant, lending his expertise in a quiet unobtrusive manner.

May he rest in peace in the hands of the Lord. Our family will keep you lifted in prayer. If you need anything, please feel free to call.

“ We will always hold dear in our hearts and memory the loving care, the character, and the strength of the man Uncle Ervin was to his family. We remember times of great fun and cheer, debate, and his sharing of knowledge to family and friends. We recall with admiration to his leadership to young people, his quiet, yet consistent presence, and his undying love for his wife and children. We were blessed to know him, to share these memories of him, and now we rejoice in knowing he is with us always.
