“ Toe, I am so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. In the brightest of moonbeams...In the rustling leaves of trees...In the blooming of flowers...her love lives on in the most beautiful places you can imagine. Your mother leaves a rich legacy. Her love is evident in the many ways she shaped your life and made you who you are. Through you, because of you, her light continues to shine. With deepest sympathy, God is the glory. Love, Peggy

“ Vicky, Rayfael and The Miller families , My prayers go out to you in the lost of your mother nd loved one. I have sat where you are and I do understand. There is truly nothing like a mother, however knowing that you have done all you could do while she was with you should give you peace and joy. God makes no mistakes and he will step in and grant you much peace. Stay strong and keep your hand in God's hand, and know that your mom is in a better place, her memory will last you a lifetime. Be strong and remember " A weeping man endureth for a night, but joy, oh joy commeth in the morning"
