“ Mother Ethel Garrett, lovingly remembered as my Mama"G". I have so many memories of her praying with and for me. I have memories of time spent in her prayer room, sitting in the green chair Mother praying and interceding on my behalf. Mother was a true prayer warrior and worker in God's vineyard. I thank her for the deposits she sowed into my life. Mother taught me many lessons; she would often say we're little GOD"s on the earth the only Bible many will ever see. I thank her children for sharing her with me, and many others . Mama "G', left a legacy of loving without limits or boundaries. Mother take your well deserved rest. I promise to make you proud R .I .H. my spiritual Queen.
