“ Sis. Ethel Winters was a strong Christian woman who was loved by our Foss Avenue Family. She worked so hard in many ministries of the church. She always gave you that big smile and a sweet hello. If you asked her to do something, she would do it with no complaints. I will miss our talks and all the support she gave my family for over 40 years. We will be missing a faithful woman of God and Heaven has acquired an Angel. We will miss her sweet lemonade that she made for all of Foss Avenues gatherings. Rest on our Sweet Ethel. We love you!!!
