Moon Funeral Home, 906 W. Flint Park Blvd., with service commencing at 11:00 AM Pastor Matthew Jackson officiating. Interment Sunset Hills Cemetery, G-4413 Flushing Rd. Family and friends will assemble at the funeral home 10:30 AM Saturday. Ms. Magee will lie in state in the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home and may be viewed from 12:00 PM - 6:00 PM Friday. Etta Faye Magee was born May 19, 1941 in Magnolia, Mississippi, the daughter of Luther "Bud" Magee and Mary Isabel Hodges-Magee. She was the third of ten children, and the eldest girl to come from her parent's union. Faye was preceded in death by her parents, husband, and four siblings, Carolyn J. Cook, Austine Magee, Gloria Williams, and Burnell Magee. Ms. Magee accepted Christ at an early age and joined Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church in McComb, MS, where she was an active member throughout her youth. She graduated from Rose Hill High School in 1959, and later attended Jackson State University. Ms. Magee moved to Flint in 1966 and worked for General Motors within AC Delco, a division of General Motors Corporation. She worked for General Motors until she retired.

Etta Faye Magee is survived by: four brothers and one sister, Theodore Magee of Pacoima, CA, Alton (Norma) Magee of Sylmar, CA, James O. Magee of Palmdale, CA, Luther Ray Magee and Mary Nell Magee, both Magnolia, MS; she also leaves to mourn two special nephews, Kenneth D. Williams and James Ray Williams; a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; special sisters-in-Christ, Joyce and Doris Mitchell.

Mother Magee was a Founding Member of Refuge Temple Church originally under the leadership of Pastor Seon Thompson and most recently Pastor Jackson since 2004. Mother Magee served as the head of the Jail Ministry, a member of the Prayer Team, Mother's Board, and The Dining Team. Before her membership at Refuge, she was a long-standing member of Eliezer Apostolic Church pastored by Bishop Raymond H. Dunlap. She was among the most committed and faithful members of Refuge Temple Church and a servant of God.

On Wednesday, October 14, 2020, at Ascension Genesys Hospital, Fay departed this life and went home to be with Lord

“ In honor of my dear Aunt Faye, you are loved and will be missed beyond measures. I will miss speaking you during the holidays as you and Aunt Gloria would be at Daddy's house(Luther Magee during the Thanksgiving holidays) and I would looked forward to talking with my Aunties as they spoiled their little brother. I will cherish those memories. I Love you Aunt Faye #restinpower
