“ I have known Sis "Hamp over 35 years growing up at North Star Church. She was a faithful, loving, kind hearted, jolly, Spirit filled, dedicated, woman of wisdom. She got along with everyone in the church. I would often tease her about the way she said amen in this high voice or how she shouted when overcome by the Spirit. She would hit at me, laugh and say "gone girl". When ever I was feeling down and I came into her presents, she had this gift that could lift my spirits. Sis "Hamp" really loved her grandchildren she made sure Darnisha was in Sunday School every Sunday. The same way she brought her children when they were growing up. God is saying well done my good and faithful servant. Sis "Hamp" has gone from labor to reward. Lacy, Deloris keep her legacy alive. You have our prayers and deepest sympathy
