Flora Lee looked forward to talking to her granddaughters, Brittany and Rashauna every Sunday. She would update them on everything and everybody. They would often tell her, "Grandma we don't know who or what you're talking about." She would reply, "Well, they who who you are!" She would end every conversation with "Be Sweet and stay with the Lord, I love you." She loved taking her grandson, Tony Jr. whom she nicknamed "Squirt" to McDonalds. Flora Lee would talk to her nephew, Melvin Thompson on the phone for hours at a time along with everybody else.

“ My sympathy to the family of Mrs. Fair. It's hard to cope with death alone, but we can take comfort in Gods word at Revelation:21:4. And may the wonderful memories of Mrs. Fair sustain you until God's promises are fulfilled.
