“ I am grief stricken by the loss of my beautiful cousin and friend, Flora. Her warm smile and sympathetic listening ear will not soon be replaced. She was a woman of many virtues. She was Godly, a loving and caring mother, a dedicated wife and homemaker, a servant to humanity through her occupation and a servant of our Lord, Jesus the Christ as a witness of the spoken Holy scriptures. She will be missed in ways we are yet to realize. To her children, be proud and give praise to the Heavenly Father that he allowed you to be born to such a woman and call her mother. As we say goodbye to Flora for now, may she rest in eternal peace and take her well deserved rest.
