“ Mrs. Clark was a beautiful person inside and out everytime I seen her or was around her she was always the same she had nothing but pleasant things to say. I'M GOING TO MISS YOU. But I will cherish all the years of memories of the guys taking You, My Mom, Shirl, and Me out to dinner on EVERY mothers day, all the gatherings and holidays and events we shared over the years. You were all about kindness, and treating everyone like they were someone special. The love that Mr. Clark, Tony, Ken and Dex had for you was such a joy to see, you guys were a perfect example of how family should be. You will truly be missed. Mr. Clark, Tony, Ken, and Dex put ALL YOUR TRUST IN THE LORD and no matter what we face in this life believe me when I tell you that the sun will shine again.
