“ Dear Troy and Family:

Although we did not personally know Floyd, we do know the hurt and pain that comes from losing a child and a sibling. Our deepest sympathy is with you and your family. We are here for all of you. I would like to share a poem that I found comforting during the loss of my daughter, Christine. "Things just don't happen to children of God; They're part of a wonderful plan; The troubles, reverses, the sorrow, the rods, are strokes of a sculptor's hand. No matter what happens to those called "His Own", Events that are awful or grand. Every trial of your life, He sent from the throne; Things don't just happen, they are planned." May God be with you all. Love, Deborah Faye, Archie Jr., and Marcus Hayman.

“ Dear Perkins Family and Friends,

I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. Many have found comfort and hope in knowing that the Bible assures us: "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) God's holy spirit, or active force, can equip you with "power beyond what is normal" to go from one day to the next. (2 Corinthians 4:7) It is my sincere hope that this gives you a measure of solace in this most difficult time. My family wishes you and yours peace.

“ To the family of Mr Floyd Perkins: I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. The pain is tremendous even with the passage of time. There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that talks about “The Hearer of prayers, people of all flesh will come.
