Mr. Foster "Al" Allen Adams was born November 2, 1947, in Hazard, Kentucky. The son of Windom Lee and Lillie Mae Adams. He moved to Flint in 1968 where he began working for General Motors until he retired from Delphi/Chevrolet Manufacturing (Chevy in the Hole) in 2008. Mr. Adams enjoyed fishing with his sons, watching game shows, wrestling and almost any sport that was ball related. Mr. Adams was an avid bowler. He was on multiple bowling leagues at Northwest Bowling Alley. He was also an assistant bowling coach for Flushing High School. Mr. Adams enjoyed playing Mrs. Pac-Man after bowling matches. He also enjoyed playing games such as Dominoes, Pokeno, Black Jack, Greedy and Solitaire Blast. His favorite past time was sitting on the deck with his wife and dogs, enjoying nature. For fun he loved dropping the top on his Vet while listening to Jazz, Blues and Old School classics. He was fondly called “The Grouch”, “Fester”, “Al Foster”, “Alf”, “Al Steezy” and “Goat”. He was always full of smiles and laughs. Mr. Adams loved to spend time and share laughs with his many grandchildren, children and especially his wife. He had a quiet nature, humble spirit and a kind, loving heart. He could whistle any song and had a beautiful singing voice. He would often be caught singing around the house or to his wife or children.
