“ *Dear Henderson Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh, even with the passage of much time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms83:18, Psalms65:2) Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians4:7)*

“ Lonette and Family,

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this most difficult time. Your husband knew how to make a person laugh. I know you have lots of funny stories that will carry you through. I know that you know that " the peace of God, which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus".

“ Lonette, You and the family have our condolences. Alston shared a memory with me about the time he spent the night with Leondre and he said Leonard made french fries that were "pretty cool". I remember sitting behind Leonard many a Sunday, and everytime he would say something that was funny and I'd have to try not to laugh too loud 'cause church was going on you know. So...May God keep you and comfort you with the the good times and the good memories you had with Leonard. We will all meet again on that Day. Love you. Twana Young and Family

“ Mama Lynn & Family,

Our family was sadden to hear of your loss. Please keep God first and he will help with the loss of your loved one. The family will be in our prayers daily. We know he loved the Lord and we will see him again. He will be deeply missed. I will miss him sitting in his spot at church on Sunday asking if I had cooked a cake. Keep in mind he will always be with you in spirit.

Death ends a life, but not a relationship. Leonard will live forever in our hearts. My heart grieves and cries with your hearts. We'll always remember him. I love you all.
