“ Frank you will be truly missed. You were always direct and to the point and you had a great sense of humor. You made my mother, Julia McDaniel, very happy this last few years. We know that you are resting peacefully now and are in a better place, but we can't help but want you here with us and my mother, watching the baseball playoffs and playing some dominoes. Thank you for being a part of our family, if only for a short time. We Love You and once again, we will Miss You.
