“ Dear Family,

We were very surprised to learn of Fred's passing. He and I spent several wonderful years working together at Bethel Park Church. He became a true friend. He was a good worker, a quick learner, and a good listener. We spent many hours sharing while working together. His challenges were often overwhelming to him and I hoped and prayed that he would find the needed grace to deal with each one. He provided for me a lot of the physical stamina that I needed for the many tasks that we undertook at the church. I consider Fred to have been among my best friendships. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family as they now deal with his passing.
