“ To the Cobb Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*

“ I truly don't know how to say what I am feeling right now and how much I will miss my Big Sis. I am going to miss all our conversations and the wisdom that she passed on to me over the last few years. I was able to share with her the memories of our father and pictures of our dads old truck that I was building in his memory. Now I will be finishing it in the memory of my sis and our dad. To all of Freddie's family and children I truly am sorry for your loss of this strong, beautiful, loving lady. I will miss my phone calls and random text messages. My life is truly going to be less full with joy and laughter, but my heart is full of the love that will last me a lifetime. Rest in peace my beautiful big sister and enjoy your reunion with all the siblings and love ones that I know were eager to see you again.

*Love you always and forever
Kevin Watkins*
