“ Just wanna say man I'll always love you man we had some good times together with me growing up as a kid just laughing at things man and talking about life or just what ever. No matter the things you did (no you was not perfect) but who is? How ever you still had a good heart and was a giving person no matter what you did and I never judged you for that. I'm sure you see how things are going and just to let you know they caught the people who did this to you as well but people just don't know that really just opened the door for you even more to meet our maker and I'm sure you living a life stress free in a world that I think about everyday with nothing but love and no pain and most of all no bills lol. I still can't believe I'm typing you this message I hate to say good bye so soon man I really hate to say it ... I'm glad you wrote me last month to check on me I won't never forget the things you did for me even if you just gave me a dollar it was the little things that I will never forget and appreciate. Thanks again family and until next time with peace and love ... I love you always ya nephew Jamar (1st) ...

“ To Ann, and his siblings no words said could ease the amount of pain that you feel but it does bring some comfort when you know that others care to share a kind word, a prayer or however they show love. Dan and I are praying for the family,
