“ Fred you could always find a way to brighten a persons day. A smile, a joke, or words of comfort, a pat in the shoulder. Thanks for your kindness and willingness to support our youth both in church and within the community. Your sermons were always on target and helped us to apply real life Biblical tactics. When you spoke, We listened! Your actions spoke Louder than YOUR WORDS! A good leader and a better listener then in to action. You're gone from our sight, but never from our heart.

Janice we love you.

The last time I saw ya'll was at my going away party at the church. As always he was upbeat and full of love and jokes. “ Words can't express the impact of Fred's loss on those who loved him. We were long time friends and more. We met in 4th grade at Martin School and after he got out of the Marine Corp we married in 1980 and had one son his namesake. I and his son Frederick Lee Jones II and his grandson Rico Lee Jones together mourn his loss with the host of others, including family members, relatives, friends, and acquaintances that loved him too. We feel a sense of assurance that he is resting in God's arms and united with others in the Kingdom.

I dedicate a passage of a poem I wrote about him following his passing that he is with the Lord:

*"A life with Our Father... A life with Our Lord"
By: Linda F. Moore-Jones-Patrick*

*A new day has come and heaven gates await,
For those who God has set a date,
For only he knows the day or the hour,
As angels sing and heaven gives the world a shower.
For the cleansing of your passage there.
Filled with joy laughter and prepared with care.
Because you made it over and received Your Reward...
....A life with Our Father ...A life with Our Lord.*

“ Such a Sad time for me right now. The Memory, of a life long friend, from Martin Elementary School, Homes Middle School and then Northwestern High School and Still continued to be very Close Friends. He always had that Beautiful SMILE and always gave words of Encouragement. A true Soilder and Warrior or our GOD. He is Present, with the Lord now. He is Walking on the Streets of GOLD, in his Mansion, Constructed, by the Hands of GOD. May GOD comfort you, Mrs. Jones & Family. Keep Fredericks, memories in your HEART. All the Good times, his dedication to Everthing he did. His Love for the Lord, his Church, Family, and Friends. His presence will be missed, but his Memories will Always be in my Heart
