Upon graduating High school in Arkansas he then moved to Flint, Michigan and began working for General Motors Metal Fab of Grand Blanc Michigan as a Skilled Tradesman. It was when he move to Flint that he met and married the late Mrs. Kathleen (Hilbert) Walton where they raised their three children. Mr. Walton was an active member of UAW Local #1292 where he served as an elected Committee man and later Committee Man-at-Large for several years. Mr. Walton loved entertaining and socializing with family and friends at his home, especially with nephews, Tracey, Johnny Ray, Sammie, Ted “Cisco” and Derrick. He enjoyed traveling, cooking-grilling for his family and was an avid sports enthusiast. He especially enjoyed watching baseball. Freddie also enjoyed watching Nascar races and welcomed every opportunity to drive as if he were actually participating in the Grand Prix or the Indy 500 races ... “Go Freddie Go”.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his sisters, Jerry (Theodore) Jordan, of Grand Blanc, MI, Linda Ireland, Barbara Jordan; his brothers, Elder C.D. (Bert) Walton, D.M. Walton and Henry Walton, all of Flint; daughter, Fermeko “Peachy” (Alan) Myles of Flint; sons, Robbie Walker, Rodney Walton, and Vincent Bradley; grandchildren, Amari and Alayna Myles, Cierra, Keturah and Mariah Walker, Nicolas and Nicole Walton, along with his many great grandchildren especially great grandson, Mekhi (who tended to his every need), a host of nieces and nephews.
