“ *To Jay & The Entire Barron Family:
Praying that God will comfort and strengthen you during this time. I have so many wonderful memories of Gail. We grew up two houses from each other on Ferris. We attended Elementary through high school together. Many games of kickball, four square, hop scotch, dodge ball and riding bikes. I will always remember her as a caring person with a servant's heart. She truly loved the Lord and enjoyed reading the Word of God and was part of our Monday night Prayer Conference Call. We would meet for lunch and talk for hours before placing an order for food. She shared her love of gardening by planting flowers for my mom which blessed my mom so much. My last memory of Gail was inviting her to Thanksgiving Dinner in 2019. I will miss her and I am truly grateful for having known Gail my entire life.
God is our refuge and strength. A present help in trouble. Psalm 46:1*

“ My girl, Gail. A true "Diva", a wonderful woman of substance, exceptional style, genuine elegance and complete confidence. The high school years provided the opportunity for us to become extremely close, and yet as in life we somehow took different paths and drifted apart...physically. Always a thought and a smile connecting us. True sisterhood built on mutual respect and admiration. I will miss you deeply and cherish our many memories fully. Rest in power, dear Gail 🙏

“ Gail one of my best friends, with that beautiful unending smile. There are so many memories I could share. We met and became good friends in kindergarten. We were in every class together at Stewart School. In recent years we talked all the time, sharing God's love, encourageing one another, sharing gospel music, old R&B and remembering the Stewart School community and friends. Much Love Gail I will truly miss you my best friend.
