“ To the Talton family,
From your next door neighbor on Cornelia street.
We had so many memories growing up with your family. I remember your father and his 1964 convertible Chevrolet. Sitting on your front porch during the summers. Riding our bikes all over Flint with “Little Larry “. Remembering your mother Clara and of course your sister Luvenia. Your relatives Kitty May and Willie May when they came to visit. When the Temptations came out with ‘Ain’t Too Proud To Beg’ you guys played it back to back to back loud and proud. Going to Doyle school and playing out in the streets until the street lights came on. Throwing rocks at Allied Trucks as they drove down our street. Humpty Dumpty store, the Casablanca bar and the Fat Man’s restaurant. So many memories and over the years when we came across each other we always was glad to see each other. Now unexpectedly and before our time we’re losing our love ones. There’s a hope my mother instilled in us back on May 24th 1967 that I want to share from Acts chapter 24 verse 15 which says in part: “there’s going to be a resurrection” That scripture has brought tremendous comfort to my family that it promises that our love ones will live again. Until I see you again may these words bring you comfort during this time of bereavement.

Love always
