Don't worry, I am here,
sorry, I am here but let me tell you the story of how I got here.
Somebody said I said, "What is that?"
Is like music.
Music but where is it coming from?
I'm the direction of the music, knocked at the door, the door open it is, there was Ruby and the family smiling and singing but no one someone say clearly, "our standing angel Uncle Be to here, let the love begin".
I worry I am here, dancing like a man with new shoes and it feels

If I could describe Uncle Bo. It would have to be FOREEVER YOUNG. I've known Uncle Bo since I was nine, or ten years old. He was a man of much compassion and love. You would find Uncle Bo going in and out of hospitals visiting the sick, and at every funeral giving comfort to those left behind. He was a great friend to my late Uncle & Aunt Mr. & Mrs. Ozro & Charlee Blackwell. He could always be counted on for a laugh, as well as sound advice. He was a true example of someone who lived life to the fullest. I last saw Uncle Bo in 2015 and never failed to tell him how much he meant to me and my family. I know he's dancing up a storm in Heaven R.I.P.

“ Oh how we are saddened by this passing. Uncle 'Bo' was a wonderful person; always loving, kind and oh so funny. He will be missed more than words can adequately express. We always thanked him for being loving and supportive to our family. He was one in a million for sure. We can see him dancing at the different family events and wedding receptions we all enjoyed. What a wonderful man....we will always love him, always.
