“ 4 yrs later and it’s still like it’s yesterday. They say time will heal all wounds no it doesn’t it just numbs them for a moment here & there. I miss you dearly Dad aka my RollDogg. My forever Valentine & Best Friend besides Mam a. Your Favorite Daughter! I Love You forever and always. You is the topic most conversations I seeing we been done talked about it or been to it or seen it together. Wasn’t a day we didn’t see each nor talk for hours long as you was living on this earth. You would be soooo proud to see all of us now “Me Mom Bear & My Kids” we would have been den did soooooo much more within these years that’s for sure. My kids definitely missed a chance to meet a fantastic Man & Role Model. Would have taught them sooo much. Continue to Rest Easy 💙💙💙💙. I LOVE YOU 😊.

“ To The Family of Mr. Garrett Greason. I had the Privilege of seeing Garrett as a the 7th grader at Emerson. In 9th Grader Garrett was the most developed Athlete I'd seen. Watching him Run A Football left a serious impression. Often times it took several players to bring him down. We didn't need to look at TV to see Greatness. Just watch Garrett.What Transformed Garrett has a Pure Life Coach is A God Thing. Garrett's Passion is still alive in His Family and Friends .
