“ The day I met Mr. Powell, was the day he was a very special person in my life. He shared and taught me a lot about life, of what it really is to be his age in life thoughts beyond its meaning, that I (we) hope to live to see his age and what he has endured in his life, and all it meant to him. There was nothing he said to me that wouldn't be the beginning of anything he will say or mislead me in what I could have imagined it to be. As time progressed, as he said I (we) was still wet behind the ears, to not know what he has experienced in his lifetime. And that all he wanted in life, was to be all he could be in what was instilled in him from his upbringing. He will be greatly missed by all he encountered in life. God be with his family throughout the absence of his presence. It was a joy to have known him as a good man. All my blessings I extend, to the Powells/Beards family.
