“ When I was a little child attending Stewart Elementary School I met a real dear and close friend named Kenny Strong, soon after he invited me to his home to meet his parents... What a wonderful life changing moment that turned out to be. His Father and Mother welcomed this dysfunctional child into their spiritual realm with open arms. I was introduced to a family with two Godly Parents raising children, Eating together at the family dinner table, Praying over food, attending bible study and worship services. They introduced me to a life that i longed to Live... A Life that helped me to introduce my brothers and sisters to God ... Mother your impact on my life can't be measured, there is no ruler big enough, it can't be written because there is not enough ink in an ink pen nor led in a pencil... My Love for you is Immeasurable. You're home now where there is only Joy and Peace... I'll See you when I get there... Your Surrogate Son, Larry D. Smith
