Mr. George Julius Nealy, known to family and friends as “The Big G”, transition on November 1, 2017 at the age of 78 in Humble, Texas. Born in Scooba, Mississippi the fourth child of seven to parents, Howard Nealy and Fannie D (Locket). He was raised in Harlem, New York by his cousin, Rachel Gunner and where he met his lovely wife, Betty Ruth (Reid) and had three children, George, Kevin and Shirelle.

Georges gave his life to Christ. He faithfully watched TBN to learn the teachings of Christ, and be in covenant with the Lord. His favorite spiritual leaders Bishop G.E Patterson, Pastor John E. Hagee and faithful prayer partner, Missionary Edna Humphrey. His last words to his wife, Missionary Betty Ruth were “Betty I will see you in heaven”.

George's eldest brother, Ernest introduced him to an opportunity, in the sleepy town of Flint, Michigan where he moved his family in 1967 and soon after had two more children, Sherrie Ruth and Crystal Sabrina. He began his industrial career at General Motors Division-Flint in 1967 and retired from General Motors-Swartz Creek, MI in 1999. After retiring from General Motors, he was able to let his entrepreneurial spirit shine with Maxxis 2000. He quickly rose to the position of, Executive Regional Director by displaying his vision and leadership skills in building a Team of like-minded individuals with the goal of helping thousands of individuals increase their income and assets.

George later relocated to Humble, Texas to be near his daughter and son-in-law, Crystal and Niguel Williams and family in 2012. George became very comfortable and independent in his new community, soon after everyone knew him as "The G". George had a passion for competition and challenges. He often displayed his passions debating politics and any new subject. He also enjoyed collecting coins, gardening, fishing, and playing a game of pool. He enjoyed dancing and listening to music of his era: Frank Sinatra, Nat King Cole, and the Shirelles. His pride, joy and love was his family. Not a day went by he didn't have a teaching for his children and grandchildren. His straight forward personality and famous quotes will be missed but never forgotten.

George leaves to cherish his memory: his children, George Kevin Nealy II (Eve), Shirelle Atkins (Kurt), Sherrie Ruth Nealy, Crystal Sabrina Williams (Niguel); 12 grandchildren, Lafayette Julius Wilson, Jamie Burress, Kenneth Burress, Jazmyn Eve Nealy, George Kaleb Nealy III, Niguel Steven Williams II, Nyla Nicole Atkins, Christopher Brad Williams, Nia Ruth Atkins, Harrison George Willie Williams; great-grandchild, Kason Wilson; brothers and sisters; Howard Nealy (Daisy), James Nealy (Carolyn), Missionary Fannie Mae Baker (Edmond), Missionary Edna Humphrey (Elder Eddie) Herman Nealy (Pamela); and multiple nieces and nephews, who loved and respected him dearly.
