George Willoughby was born August 30, 1930 in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama to George and Maggie Willoughby. George was an industrial young man from his youth, always looking for opportunities to improve his family's life and status. He loved working from an early age and learned a great deal by sheer will. On November 21st of 1954 he married a kind, gentle and loving Sarah Huddleston. During their 45 year marriage the two had 3 children: George Jr., Miranda, and Sonya. George and Sarah were together until her passing in January 5, 2000. He had many interests including birds, wildlife, investing, working and repairing things. George loved being outdoors. He worked for GM for 47 years and owned and managed apartments for most of his life and had a work ethic which never stopped. George was motivated and driven to succeed in life and do whatever he set his mind to.

George Willoughby, Jr. leaves to cherish in his memory loving and devoted daughters: Miranda and Sonya Willoughby, and sister: Barboure Martin, dear friend Welton Wright, special and devoted friends Eddie Willingham, and Kathy Lard, and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

George was presided in death by: wife: Sarah Willoughby, son: George Willoughby, parents: George (Dorothy) Willoughby, Maggie (Joe) Nance, brother: Erskine Willoughby, sisters: Justine Willoughby, Jeanette Twitty, and LaDonne Elliott.

“ Our relationship was brief as it only began after the passing of my grandmother and your dear wife Sarah. We had some good times and shared very few memories, but I will cherish them forever. Although me and my father (your son) did not have a strong relationship, his last words to me were a request to resolve my differences with you. Although I made several attempts to apologize by relaying messages through your daughter, Terrisa Parlor, I wanted you to know that I was truly sorry for being young, stubborn, and irresponsible and hoped you eventually found it in your heart to forgive me. I missed you Granddad, and will always love you. I hope and pray you are resting in peace.
