“ Aunt Georgia Mae was my mother's (Matra or Mae Isom) older sister and when they were both alive they were inseparable, although they argued their personal views back and forth, with each other, they always remembered that they were sisters first, and adversaries second, lol! I mean these were two very opinionated Godly women, and they both just knew they were right! Must have been that Adams blood in them (maiden names)! I loved my Aunt Georgia, as I love all of my family members, but there was a very special place in my heart for Aunt Georgia because she was a constant reminder of a lot of good memories of her and my mom, as she was the aunt that we would frequently visit, and it didn't necessarily need to be a special occasion! They could have been twins, two peas in a pod, and now they're together again, so now almighty God, you can be the mediator! Family, be encouraged and let us respect our elders as we honor the memories of our ancestors! I love you, one and all, God bless!!
Sincerely, TERRY

“ Oliver Family we send our love and condolences to you. We met her 2 yrs. ago being a member of the mission at First New Life Church. My first visit she treated me as family. I promise her some oranges, she said if I didn't get them she would pull me bald headed.. I rushed and got them oranges and brought them to her. I thank God for the opportunity to meet her. God Bless you Pat and family.
