“ I remember when we lived on Austin Street and the Washington's moved in next door. They took away our playing field so we didn't like them. But as we got to know them we became friends and played together all the time. Georgia by coincidence also lived next door to me when I married my husband. She was the same Georgia. Always funny and fun to be around. To her family I say you have lost a diamond but God will see you through this bleak time. My family's prayers are with you. God bless you.
