“ I did not know your loved one but by his tribute wall I can tell he was loved by many. I am deeply sorry for your loss. Unfortunately we all have inherited sin and death from our first parents Adam and Eve. We were all born into a world in which everyone both good and bad die. But the bible tells us at Job 14:14,15 that Jehovah "yearns" to reunite children with their parents by means of the resurrection and lovingly has made provision to do so. I would like to leave you with this last comforting thought found at Isaiah 25:8:" He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. The bible also holds out not only the hope of death being swallowed up forever but the hope of living on a paradise earth forever and all loved ones that we have ever loss in death to be resurrected to life here on a paradise earth as I stated before. I hope that you find these scriptures to be comforting. I have left my e-mail address if you would like to know more. Again I am deeply sorry for your loss.
