“ Growing up Oak Street was the place to be.

That tiny house was filled with so much LOVE to everyone that visited. The family gatherings, BBQ's & so much more was the highlight of visiting. You & Jeanette made everyone feel so welcomed & loved. Your Love that was shown to everyone is also shown thru your children & grands/greats. Now you both are together again in the presence of the Lord. You both are Loved back the same by so many of us. Love you cousin. RIH Love Althea & Glennell

“ To Jennifer and the rest of the Jacob family. I can remember the first time I met your father - my take away was that he was one of the coolest men I'd met. I loved and admired his dedication to your mother and all of his offspring and he treated everyone with the same love and kindness that he extended to his family. You have my heartfelt condolences and will be in my prayers.
