Gladys Mae (Engram) Kemp grew up in Leslie, Georgia with her parents and two sisters Christine and Susie. As a little girl she learned that all her help comes from the Lord. Going to Church was a way of life for her as she followed her parents, Deacon Warren And Ossie Engram. Because of this foundation she accepted Christ at a very young age. Her early formal education was in Sumpter County, Georgia through high school graduation. After graduating from High School, her father told her that she needed to learn a skill to be self supportive. He told her this because he witnessed that none of his daughters were any good at farm life. Gladys accepted that advice, enrolled at Albany State University (Albany, Georgia) where she met her lifetime friend, Helen Stewart known as the walking twins. She graduated with her Bachelor Degree in Elementary Education. She later received her Masters in Early Childhood Development from Eastern Michigan university. She educated children for 38 years retiring in 2003 from the Flint Board of Education. February 1963, she met the love of her life, Larry Kemp and married him on her parents porch August 10, 1969. They remained together in Flint where they made a home raising their two children.

Gladys Mae Kemp leaves to cherish her memory: husband, Larry Kemp; daughter, Stacie Kemp of Raleigh, NC; son, daughter-in-law and granddaughter, Larry (Chris), Shemeka and Kaitlyn Kemp, all of New Bern, NC; nephew, Carlton Warren of Macon GA; nieces, Janice (Edmond) Pettigrew of Atlanta, GA, Sherry Warren, Iris Warren, Linda (Raymond) Reynolds, all of Macon GA, and Lavern (Miguel) Arce of Hartford CT. She also leaves her brothers and sisters-in-law, Ron Kemp of Washington, D.C., Phil Kemp of St. Louis, MO, Teresa (Vincent) Hall, Wayne (Donna) Kemp, Lorraine Kemp, all of Wellsville, MO, Archie Kemp Jefferson City, MO, Darryl (Cindy) Kemp of Wellsville, MO, Lynette (Clint) Canterbury of Mexico, MO, Kevin (Laura) Kemp; uncle, Calvin Kemp, all of Wellsville MO. She also leaves behind a host of other relatives and friends including another of her closest friends, Rosie Racine Grand Blanc, MI and the Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church family.
