“ I was pregnant with my oldest son Christopher and I was over to the house with the family, I mentioned I wanted some greens and Ms. Thomas had them go to the store and get some greens for me. She cooked me an entire pot of greens and wouldnt let anyone touch them! I was carrying her great grandson and I wanted them so she made sure I had them. She always made sure that I was well fed and comfortable, my sons were blessed to have her in their life and get to experience the love of a great grandmother. Love always Krystal C.

“ A day or two before mama went to the hospital, I sat with her on the porch for a few minutes. We shared some grocery store fried chicken. Apparently mama was not too impressed with her big chicken breast. I asked her how was it. She said it was OK, took a couple more bites off and chucked in the front yard on the grass. I could've fell out my seat as hard as I was laughing on the inside. Respectfully on the outside I kept it together.

That's my memory that keeps me smiling whenever I think of her. Mike, Cheryl, Marvin and Marnika.. the Lord gifted you all with mama in body for a short time, but the years of laughter and memories are forever. Share them and smile.

May you fill this void with a closer walk with Christ.

Your friend Nisan.

Love you.
