“ Those we love remain with us, for love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade because a loved one is gone. We can never be more than a thought apart, for as long as there is memory you'll always be in our hearts. Loving and missing you with our love.

Marjorie S. Abrams - January 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked at Meijers on Pierson Rd. My daughter Gale and I went to Mott College with Glen. Please accept our condolences on your loss.

“ I am so sad to hear about Glen's passing. My dad just called to tell me and I was definitely surprised. I grew up across the street from the Simmons family. The last time I saw Glen was at Kendra's wedding and he was the same Glen I've always remembered --- smiling and cheerful.

My prayers are with the family.

“ TO Mrs. Simmons and family;

I had just found out about Mr. Glen today while I was in class and couldn't retain my emotions while in class. Glen was a father-figure for me while growing up in our neighborhood. He was a very influential character for me, always encouraging me to strive for my goals. He would often tell me how proud he was of Glen Jr. and me. I will miss him dearly. I am deeply sorry for not being able to make it to the funeral.

I love you all!!!!!! I send you my love and condolences.

Love

James August II
