“ Aunt Glennie will be truly missed by our family,her candid way of humour and ability to bring laughter even in sadness. I will always cherish the bond of love she gave me as a nephew and the many confidential conversations she shared. To Kenny,Tasha, and Shanita, always understand death is always looked upon as a negative act placed upon the sons of God. If It be the case ask yourselves, how did God feel when Christ faced death, something never included in the creation but added due to imperfection, yet we were showed the goodness of God because It's end price is still eternal life. Some beautiful day and not too far away,this has to pass and oh what a day when we see them all again. Miss her but never let her memory fade until that day we will see them all again. LOVE you all and remember, God is good even when we think he 's too far away to hear our cry, he is still just a prayer away.
