Mrs. Goldie McEwen was born November 18, 1923 in Coleman, Michigan, the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Fred and Myrtle (Holly) Harris. She was a graduate of Crowe and Coleman High school. Goldie decided to move to Flint in the early 1940's. She met the love of her life, Mr. Charles E. McEwen. The couple were married on November 12, 1943 and to this union, David and Beverly were born. Goldie was a loving and dedicated mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She worked as a domestic for many years, cooking and feeding everyone. She enjoyed the smiles on well fed faces. During her spare time Goldie loved to crochet, spend time with her family and friends, and faithfully serving the Lord. She was a member of Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church for over 60 years. Goldie served on the Deaconess Board, Missionary Society, as well as the Mother Board.

Mrs. Goldie McEwen leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Beverly
