Mr. Gordon Ray Myles was born January 15, 1957 in Flint, Michigan, the son of Wallace Myles and Bessie Mays. Gordon was employed with Fisher Body until the plant was closed permanently. Undaunted, he began a new career as a Direct Care Provider. On May 1, 1997, Gordon was honored with the "Impact Award", because of his strong work ethics and dedication. Gordon was an equally dedicated athlete - running the Crim and other marathons for many years. Besides running, he loved fishing, playing pool, and watching sports with his friends. Among friends and family, Gordon had one more unique quality, his sense of humor. On a more serious note, Gordon often assumed parental responsibility for his nieces and nephews by investing in their "First Steps" towards financial independence. Despite his illness, Gordon maintained a positive attitude and strived to remain autonomous. Mr. Gordon Ray Myles leaves to cherish his memory: grandmother, Lillie Bell; mother, Bessie Mays; sisters, Jackie (Huda) Townsend, Wonda Bearyman Dunlap, Janice Jones, Tawanna Baggett and Nancy Voilette; nieces, Kim Armstrong, Latasha Conner, Alicia Bearyman, and Shakera and Angielic Reed; nephews, Rendal and Rodric Odom, Adam Bearyman and Timothy House; aunts, Mary Hall, Christine (Eddie) Maxie and Ella Jones; special cousins, John, Farron and Stacey Hall, and Candace and Jasmine Myles. “ Mrs. Bessie and family may the fun times with Gordon and all the memories help him to continue to live in your hearts. He was a very nice person and was always smiling when I saw him. I recall as a little girl Gordon running every morning, as I grew up he continued the same pattern. May he rest in peace and may God have mercy on his soul.
