“ What a loving, caring and beautiful brother you were to me! Your gentle and oh so kind spirit was truly a wonderful blessing in my life! I’m so very blessed and thankful that God picked you to be my brother! God granted us more time together, I’m so very grateful for that as well! You my dear sweet brother will ALWAYS be a wonderful memory in my mind and I will smile with so much happiness when I think of you, my heart will be overwhelmed with joy! I’m missing you terribly, but I know God was ready for you and that brings me peace! No more pain, hurt 😭 you suffer no more! Until we meet again, I love ❤️ you brother with every beat of my heart!

“ Birddean and Greg have been clients of mine since March of 2017. Birddean, after some years, became the chatty one and Gregory was the nodding-in-agreement-w/whatever-Birddean-said one. He was forever kind, and enjoyed doting on his beloved wife. They got to be quite comfortable in my office, and reminiscing together became a usual occurrence when the Blackwell's came to see me. One time Birddean was too sick to take the bus, so Gregory came alone. When alone, he had quite a bit to say! I will always remember his benevolent, gentle voice and how he loved to be with his friend. May God bless you and continue to cover you in His arms, Birddean.
