“ Several months I continue to ask about you, if you were ok after you retired from Truck Driving. Many years we talked, ate at the truck stops, watched you service your truck, and laughed about politics. You and Joyce visited Robert and I years ago in Atlanta, Georgia near Lenox Mall. You lived by example. Dedicated trucking contractor worker. You worked for the Sheriff Department. Smart brother. I appreciate you so much for unconditional love as your sister. This hurts. I would have moved to Michigan to make sure you were ok. I didn't know you were terminally ill. I thought I had enough medical information to help you. It was too late. I screamed when I receive the news of your death. Devastated. Speechless. Upset. Confused. Feeling disconnected. Nonetheless, you treated me with the upmost respect, concern for my well being. My big brother. You will be sadly missed. I will cherish all the good advice you instill in me. Praying for the family. Peace. Bye Man. Tears.
