So sorry to hear of your loss, Your lives have been touch by an angel. I will treasure the many days we shared studying the word of God at GM. My memory of Gwen is, she was a precious jewel and now a soldier whom God has called home. I remember her infectious smile, great ove for God and his Word.

Yes, Gwen you are highly favor among the women. You have earned your wings to see the glory of God! May you rest in his tender care. I thank God for your life and testimony. Farewell Gwen, I will see you in the morning when he calls my name. I say rejoice, my sister.

“ *To the Family of Gwendolyn Green: I am so sorry for your loss. Gwen was always such a warm and beautiful person. I will really miss parking the shopping cart in Kroger and Sam's Club and chatting with her for a while. I met Gwen when I was about 12 and she was always the same. Always smiling and so pleasant. “ My deepest sympathy to the family of Mrs Green. We got our nails done at the same place and she was a beautiful person so warm the very first day I met her and one of her first questions was "what church do you attend" and she invited me to her church several times and you could tell by her conversation that she was a woman of great faith.

“ Kelvin, Lalngrid and family. Rick and I send our sincere condolences in the loss of your mom. Gwen was a wonderful neighbor and co-worker for years, full of that old-fashioned southern hospitality and at least a half-hour conversation every time we met in a store somewhere. Please know that we are praying for God's blessings of peace and comfort especially during the holiday season.

“ My condolences to Kelvin and Lalngra and the rest of the family. I patterned so many parts of my life to mirror the impact your mom made on me. I loved her with all of my heart and I often shared how so much of the woman I am today is because of who she was to me. She will be greatly missed. I love you both and you and your families are in my prayers.
