Gwendolyn Jean Weststroek was born February 22, 1956, in Flint, Michigan, the daughter of James and Rachel B. Weststroek. Gwen was a lifetime resident of Flint and a 1974 graduate of Flint Northwestern High School. She attended Eastern Michigan University and later went to Baker College of Flint and earned her Associate Degree in Shorthand. Gwen recently retired from JC Penny Corp and was formerly a longtime employee at Lowes and Kmart. She loved to sing and dance. Being silly was natural for her. Gwen loved playing Candy Crush on her phone (she didn't answer calls while she was playing). She was always ready for the weather to break so she could put her flowers out. Gwen loved to go to Bingo, oh and she made sure her lottery number was in. She loved going to the casino, every chance she got she was there. Gwen loved her family, family gatherings, and watching old movies. She watched the 10 Commandments yearly faithfully from beginning to end. To know Gwen is to love her as she never met a stranger. Until we meet again Gwen “Arrivederci”.

Gwendolyn Jean Weststrock leaves to cherish her memory: 2 sons, Eric Weststrock and Marquise Weststrock; 2 grandchildren, Asil Lang, all of Flint and Eric Weststrock Jr. of Grand Blanc, MI; mother, Rachel B. Weststrock; 2 sisters, Kathy Weststrock and Cassandra Weststrock; brother, Daryl Weststrock; 2 nieces, Teka Franklin, all of Flint and Diamond Weststrock of Romulus, MI; 4 nephews, DeWayne Weststrock of Flint, Daryl Weststrock Jr. of Sarasota, FL, Anthony Weststrock and DeVante Weststrock; 5 great-nieces, Armani Maynie, all of Flint, Kali Huddleston of Burton, MI, Brooklyn Weststrock, Madison Weststrock, both of East Pointe, MI and Isabella Weststrock of Romulus, MI; 3 great-nephews, Jacari Weststrock of Flint, Ashton Weststrock of Grand Blanc, MI and Remington Moore of Mason, MI; aunt, Inez Taylor of Flint; uncle, Robert Taylor of Springfield, MA; a host of cousins too numerous to name; a host of other relatives and friends including special friends, Doris Gibson, Tawana, Dafony and Tela.

“ Praying for the family and friends of Gwen. I've known Gwen for a long time, since Holmes Junior High. No matter how much time passed between us seeing one another it felt like yesterday. And you can bet when we walked away from one another it was done after we finished laughing. Rest on my Flint Northwestern Class of 1974 classmate. When I think of you, I think of LIVE, LAUGH and LOVE. ❤️
