“ To the Jones Family,

I had the opportunity to meet Mrs. Hannah just about seven years ago. She was a wonderful person who loved her children and grandchildren most of all. She visited our home in Lansing, Michigan on several occasions for our annual 4th of July gathering. She was such a special person. The unexpectedness of her passing still has me stunned. You are in our prayers and we will continue to remember her with much love. May God continue to comfort all of you in the days, weeks, and months ahead. God Bless.

“ So sorry to hear about Hannah's death. Please rest assured that the pain you're feeling will lighten with time but your memories will last until you meet again. Jesus' death and resurrection is an example of what his Father, Jehovah can do and will do again. Yes, Hannah Jones will be resurrected according to God's promise in John, chapter 5, verse 28,29 found in the Bible. And look where she will live according to Matthew 5:5 & Psalms 37:11,29. Please read and receive the comfort that only God's word can give.

“ To Charles and Family:

You have my sincere regrets and my deepest sympathy on your unexpected loss. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy at this tragic time I was deeply saddened to hear about your loss. I want you to know that I share in your grief. I know that death is never easy to accept, but I know that when it is so unexpected it adds to the grief. The pain does ease with time. My thoughts and prayers will be with you and your family

The Bible says "Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted." I pray that God will bless you and give you the strength and peace you need to get through this very difficult time.

Respectfully yours,

“ To the Jones Family,

I was very sadden to hear of the passing of Mrs. Hannah. My fondest memory of Mrs. Hannah was meeting her for the first time at Red Lobster where were 25 or more deep. She was a very nice lady. My prayers goes out to you in the days that lie ahead.

“ My family and I are deeply saddened in the passing of Hannah. Hannah and I grew up in a small Mississippi town, our parents taught us love each other and the Lord. She was a beautiful humble ,kind, loving Christian lady. The same qualities she exemplified as a teenager in Terry, MS. We will miss her, but this Angel is at home. With love and God's Blessings, Hildreth, Kim , Tyra and Jerin

“ Ms Hannah, I have only met you in Spirit, through your son, Charles. He always spoke of you with such tenderness. I want you to know that Charles is a good son, and I know he will miss your absence in his life terribly. Charles, I know your mother would want only comfort for you and your siblings as you all mourn her passing. Find peace in the fact you all had her for a mother while on this earth. God Bless!

“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.
