“ I am missing you so much. I wish that you were here with me and these four boys. I remember Aarons first football game and watching you run up and down the football field coaching him...you were so proud of him. Your children brought you so much joy...I wish we had more time together baby. I miss you every day and the boy's miss and love you to....MUAH!!!

“ Dearest Cook Family, Please accept my sympathies toward your family at this time. No greater comfort have I found than the words found in the Bible. At Isaiah 25:8 there is a promise that God has made to "swallow up death forever"...its a comfort that very soon He will fulfill that promise. Titus 1:2 assures us that God does not "lie".

Sincerely,

Tasha Brooks

“ You will be missed so very much Punkin! I think about all the awesome times we had. And all the things you used to say. I haven't seen you in so many long years, but I still love you! You did so much for me. You are such a kind, generous, funny, amazing person. I'm hurt that I never got a chance to say that personally. I am so grateful that I met you. I can't say how sorry I am for what has happened to you. So many emotions... But I know you are at peace wrapped in God's arms. My heart goes out to you and your Mom and all of your family. I will never ever forget you!

“ To the family of Mr. Cook I send my deepest sorrow. Please rest assured that he won't sleep long. Why do I say that? Because Jesus will be used by his Father (Jehovah) to awaken our loved ones sleeping in death. Read an example of this in the bible book of John 11:11,41-44 and receive the comfort that only God's word can give. Joyce
