“ It is hard to believe that Pat(that is what we all called her)is gone. I have not seen her since August at Mark's funeral. She has always been a nice person. I can remember when her aunt was my brother's girl friend. We have known each other for a long time. It is my understanding that she was at home and at peace when the Lord called her and I can not think of a better way to go. For her sister Stephanie, Hold on to Gods hand and know that you will see Pat again one day. God does not make no mistakes. My sisters, Helen and Myra Thomas, as well as myself will most definitely keep you in our prayers.
