“ It's been awhile since our dearest Aunt Hattye passed away. She and Uncle Amos, for many, many years, traveled by car to Mississippi for Christmas bringing joy, love, light and peace. Like kids waiting on Santa Claus, we'd stay awake until they arrived. The moment their pulled up in front of the house adorned with a Christmas wreath, the spirit of Christmas cheer was lit like a Christmas tree. We'd all dive in on Christmas Eve and begin the family's tradition of Christmas brunch that included sausage, bacon, scrambled eggs, homemade biscuits, fried oysters, rice, and the smother "squirrel"..... Tis the season to be jolly and Christ the Savior was born.....Awwwww.....Aunt Hattye playing the piano and we all singing Christmas carols....then our modeling show would begin with all of Aunty Hattye's furs.....celebrating the birth of Christ.....to remember the good times and having experienced this joy softens the pain of losing both Aunt Hattye, Uncle Amos and now my beloved husband, her niece, Albert "Sweepea" Williams. My wish is they all gather in Heaven (Mother Dear, Dad, Papa Williams, Mama Williams, Aunt Bell, Aunt Hattye, Uncle Amos, Brandi, and now my beloved Sweepea) have a Merry Heavenly Christmas. We will forever cherish your life and the memories we made....Love Forever and Ever - Rosetta
