“ To my siblings Renee well what can I say? You have been a interesting sister your ways have been somewhat crazy over the years however, through the tears, fears you have come through and weathered the storms may God continue to bless you and Charlton. To Lola well for the last 9 + years you have taken over a task that I had the pleasure of doing for 3 consecutive years and yes I know the pain you are suffering from and I do know that the pain will decrease over time in the meantime remember our mom's wishes and best dishes yea you weren't a very good cook lol however, over the years you done a little something something hehehe. Continue to ask God for grace mercy forgiveness and meekness. To Timothy well my brother I am so proud and glad that I was able to help you have some closure in mom's passing I just pray that each day gets better for you I also, pray that one day you can come home and be at peace. To Debbie Ann my sister God has truly smiled on you you have accomplished so many goals in life that I am so proud of you You've given up smoking praise God! Your health has increased and you definitely look good girl you have inspired me to continue to loose weight and I am going to catch up with you girl lol, You have lost a mom however, you have become a grandmother all in the same month and that is a blessing I love you Renee, Lola, Timothy, Debbie Ann, Shawn may you guys fulfill all of your dreams, goals, most importantly may we come together as a family not enemies and certainly not vultures over money, materialistical things, who gets this that I want us to be a strong family no matter what Remember what Moma Hazel said there are no favorites everyone is equal and keep it in the family love you guys take care of your selves and remember to keep your heads up and look to the Heavens from that is where all of our strength comes from God help us all love you. Your babysister, Robin Shelby

“ I remember my mother speaking of her friend, Hazel, at Antioch back in the early 60's. She said that Hazel was one of the reasons she looked forward to going. Well Hazel and Jane Randolph. I met the family through her nephew, Jerry Taylor, in 1991. But I never knew that my Mom was talking about Mrs. Smith until her husband had passed. To the entire Brock/Smith family, you have our deepest sympathy.
