Hazel Mathis was born November 9, 1934, in Halifax, North Carolina, to the late Lee and Geneva Wright. Hazel peacefully departed this life surrounded by love. She was a woman of unwavering faith, strength, integrity and grace whose life was deeply rooted in her love for God and devotion to her family. Hazel graduated from Eastman High school in Enfield, NC. She carried the values of hard work, perseverance, and dedication with her throughout her life. A devoted woman of faith, Hazel was a faithful member of Carpenter Road Apostolic Church. Her relationship with God was the foundation of her life. She trusted God in every season and walked boldly in her beliefs. Her faith was not just something she spoke about, it was something she lived daily through service, kindness and generosity.

Hazel was known for her honesty. She believed in telling the truth, even when it was difficult, and she spoke with clarity, sincerity and love. If you asked her opinion, you would receive it, straightforward and genuine. Her wisdom and transparency were qualities that many respected and appreciated. Hazel had a heart for caring for others. She worked for many years as a caregiver and aide for the sick and elderly. Caring for others was not just her job it was her calling.

Hazel found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She loved fishing, bowling, cooking and gardening. Whether tending to her flowers, casting a fishing line, or preparing one of her delicious home-cooked meals, she did everything with care and passion. Her home was always open, and she helped countless people throughout her life. Anyone in need could find comfort at her table with a warm meal and a listening ear.

More than anything, Hazel cherished spending time with her family and friends. She was the heart of her family, a source of wisdom, love and encouragement. Her presence brought peace, laughter, and warmth to every room she entered.

“ My grandma lived 90 strong years. She was sassy, loving, and the heart of our family.

I'll always remember walking into her house, seeing her in her chair, and waking up to pancakes when we spent the night.

Her hugs and kisses meant everything.

I will miss her deeply, but her love will stay with me forever. □

“ My condolences to Ms. Hazel's family. I pray God's comfort, grace and healing for each of you. Ms. Hazel had a beautiful spirit, smile, was a kind hearted, caring 'sassy lady'. I enjoyed your visits with Mom (your buddy). I enjoyed listening and joining in you girls conversations. Good conversations. You two had me laughing until my side hurt. I miss those good times. Ms. Hazel when you get to heaven, tell Mom I said hi and I miss her. Don't you two sassy ladies get put in timeout by God for misbehaving because you're back with your buddy. Rest in peace, Ms.Hazel, rest in peace. Peace, comfort and healing for the family.
