“ I want to share a memory for my mom Helen Abraham. She was a very beautiful mom and a great human being. We are all set me and my brothers to see her go and we love her very very much. We know as children we didn't do all the things right but my mother still love this whatever we did. Now she is in God's hands and Jesus will take her from here we pray all the Abraham children that my mother have a safe Crossing to be with God in Jesus name we pray amen
