“ Today I pay tribute to Mr. Doan who was a great person. He was my client for 40 years and he became family. I was a kid in beauty school when he started letting me be his stylist. Up until 3 to 4 weeks before being called home, I spoke with him on the phone and he was still trying to come and get his hair together. Mr. Doan did not play about his hair, he liked to look good and groomed! He had great laughter and brightened up the salon when he came in; no one was a stranger to him. I could share many stories over the years about Mr. Doan, but I am sworn to secrecy (smile). Although things will never be the same, he will be missed but will live on with great memories Angie Fox
