“ I didn't have the pleasure of meeting Mr. Henry Moyo, but I heard and saw an attestment to his greatness through his son, Kenneth Moyo. Growing up I always heard this saying, "The chip don't fall far from the stump." This means, you can tell the caliber of the parent by their offspring. In knowing the 'chip' Kenneth Moyo, I can only think 'what a stump.' Best wishes to the Moyo family. May your higher power bring you the comfort and peace you seek. Cleopatra Macon, GA

“ After viewing the lovely Celebration of Life this morning for Henry I went to my old photos and found this picture of Henry's truck that I had taken on one of my return visits to Flint, after having moved to California. I just had to post it. Not one of my most clearest photos but I just felt moved to share it in light of the heartfelt tribute/services for Henry that I had just viewed. My husband Ron met Henry once on a visit he and Helen made to California. Ron always remembers and has forever regretted not following through on Henry's invitation to come to Michigan to learn the craft of masonry work. At the time little did Ron know that 15 years later he would have his own concrete business.

A salute to Henry, a man that was a Master of his craft, may your work live on as monuments for all to remember you for.

Juliette and Ron Davis*

It was indeed a pleasure to have known Henry Moye and to listen to some of the stories he shared. I recalled the first time I toured the small mansion he built in Clarkston, Michigan. He would offer you a beverage and say "the tour will last for one hour, and it almost took that long to take in all of the details of his design. May you rest in Peace, Charlene Wooldridge, Ph. D., a Michigan friend of Henry and Helen.

“ What a handsome photo of Henry that was selected for this sad occasion. It truly captures the essence of who he was. I too will always remember Henry for his kindness, smile, soft-spoken tone, and of course his outstanding craftsmanship/skill of his brickwork. May Henry's family and friends find comfort with their cherished memories of Henry that will continue to live on within each one of us forever.

“ I will always remember Henry as a kind, gentle and soft spoken man. He invited me to fish with him one day to help me in my transition from Ohio to Michigan to work for his wife Helen. Their friendship made a tremendous difference. I will always be grateful to him. God be with the Moye family and all who loved Henry.

“ I hope the Moye family finds comfort in their memories of Henry. He was a wonderful person!

I will always remember Henry's skillful way of integrating guidance and humor when Opella & I needed advice. His words of wisdom helped me to become the person that I am and the person that I am not.

You will be dolefully missed and forever loved by myself & my family.

With love,
